Re: National Grid
— Settlement

I urge you to throw out the class action settlement claim against National Grid. I am a customer of National Grid who pay the full residential rate. Why should those of us who pay our bills have to give money to those who don't. National Grid and its full paying customers are already giving lower income people a 30% discount.

National Grid and their bill collectors should be able to contact people who haven't paid their bills in any manner so long as they are not abusive. Cell phone are a legitimate way of doing so, whether permission was granted or not.

Respectfully,

Thomas M. Wilson
